

Rev. Renée MacVicar

Rev. Renée MacVicar ran into God's grace as a young adult and continues to be changed by that grace every day. Renée has a passion to see everyone joining God in their neighbourhoods. Renée currently serves as the Executive Minister for the Canadian Baptists of Atlantic Canada, a family of over 400 churches seeking to overflow with the hope of Jesus across Atlantic Canada. Renée has previously served in churches in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, and Scotland. She has a degree in Kinesiology from the West Coast (Simon Fraser University) and theological degrees from the East Coast (Acadia Divinity College.) When Renée married Joe, she also gained two beautiful children - Emma and Isabell. She lives in Salisbury, New Brunswick, where she can often be found running, reading or playing board games.
